KAY SPENCE'S GELDING WORKS MILE IN 1:43 OVER CHURCHILL DOWNS TRACK.

Trial Is Best So Far Shown by Kentucky Derby Candidates in Training at Louisville—Horses Bound for Lexington.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—All of the locally trained Kentucky Derby candidates have recently gone a mile at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park, in preparation for longer trials leading up to work-outs during the last two weeks of their training for the big race over the full mile and a quarter course. Of the candidates in training at Churchill Downs, Hodge has worked the fastest mile, his best record being 1:43, while over the same track Bronzewing has worked the distance in 1:43 1/2; Ralph in 1:44 1/2; Belle in 1:45 1/2; Tender in 1:45 3/4; Toronto in 1:46 1/2; Watermelon in 1:47 1/2; and Robinetta in 1:48. At Douglas Park Old Rosebud has gone the distance in 1:43 1/2 and Brickley a mile in 1:43 1/2.

For extreme speed Old Rosebud leads all the locally trained Kentucky Derby candidates that have worked at shorter distances, he having gone five-eighths in 1:01 1/2 and three-quarters in 1:14 1/2, in his trial mile of 1:43 1/2. Bronzewing's best time for five-eighths has been 1:02 1/2, with three-quarters in 1:16 1/2, while Hodge went five-eighths in 1:03 1/2 and three-quarters in 1:16 1/2, and Ralph covered five-eighths in 1:02 1/2 and three-quarters in 1:16 1/2. Watermelon has been five-eighths in 1:02 1/2 and three-quarters in 1:16 1/2. The easiest mile work was by Old Rosebud and Hodge, both of which appeared to be well within themselves when they did their latest fast work.

All the locally trained Kentucky Derby candidates are continuing to take their work well and so far it would appear that every one of the three-year-olds named are being pointed by their trainers to make a bid for the coming year, which, with its $10,000 in added money, will be the richest Kentucky Derby ever run.

John W. Schorr, who has Vandergrift in training for the Derby, has returned from a visit to E. R. Bradley's Lexington, where Bradley's Choice and Black Toney are being prepared for their Kentucky Derby engagement. He says they are training well and look good. Bradley's Choice has received the most backing in the future books of the Bradley candidates.

John W. Schorr has decided to send Ed Crump and Lindenthal to Lexington to fill their engagement in the Breeders' Futurity. Trainer McCormack will go along with the youngsters and probably will take three or four more horses in this big stable there to race. Both Ed Crump and Lindenthal are also engaged in the Idle Hour Farm Stakes there. John F. Schorr will go to Lexington for the running of these two events. If he can spare the time from his training duties at Douglas Park, he will be there.

A. J. Dunlap will take five or six horses to Lexington out of the string he has at Churchill Downs, having secured stabling accommodations outside the course at Lexington. Among the performers he will take there are Mand McKee, Queen and the three-year-old filly Amber, daughter of Puryear D, and the richly bred mare, Priceless Jewel, by Plauditt. This filly he purchased at Juarez last winter out of the stable of A. B. Spreckels, and she was highly thought of by the Spreckels trainer, W. Carroll. While at Lexington Dunlap hopes to be able to pick up a promising young horse or two. He would like to add several good two-year-olds to his string this spring.

Trainer R. C. Benson, in charge of James Butler's eastern string of horses, is desirous of securing several good exercise boys for his training establishment at Empire City. He has "Spider" Allen now here looking for boys desiring such employment.

Herman R. Brandt is another trainer at Churchill Downs who will try Lexington this spring with his stable. He will ship his string to the Kentucky Association course early in the coming week. Brandt has in training this season The Reuch, Cash on Delivery and a two-year-old, Kris Kringle. The latter is an eligible to the Juvenile Stakes at the Downs this spring. He is not engaged in either of the important two-year-old events at Lexington.

Sir Harry, a good three-year-old in R. A. Leigh's stable, died today at Churchill Downs. It is presumed that the colic or indigestion which caused his death was due to his having swallowed a piece of glass in his feed. He won his last start at Juarez and had been here three weeks. He was a chestnut colt by General Roberts—Motto.

WILL RACE AT KING EDWARD PARK.

Montreal, Que., April 15.—Local turf enthusiasts will be well supplied with thoroughbred racing during the coming season, with 56 days of that sport, distributed over a period of four months. There had been some doubt as to whether or not King Edward Park, a half-mile track, would again be opened this season. Dates have now been announced for the Isle Gros Bois course from July 11 to July 18, and from August 12 to 19 inclusive. The work of erecting new stables at Delorimier Park race track has commenced and it is expected that they will be completed within three or four weeks.

ROBERT WADDELL AND HIS GRAND RACING CAREER AT WASHINGTON PARK

American Derby winners were always for the time being greatly admired by Chicago patrons of racing, but from Modesty in 1884 down to Highball in 1904 none of them possessed quite the measure of popularity awarded to Robert Waddell. His breeder and owner, "Pa" Bradley, was an eccentric in some ways, but his horses generally had a loyal following here. It was his custom for a number of years to begin his annual racing campaigns at Washington and from thence go on to Pimlico and Aqueduct. From the latter track he would come to Chicago and remain through the local season. He had a farm at Wilcox Landing, on the James River, Virginia, and most of the horses he raced here were bred there. As far back as 1891 he was out here with the good colt, Blitzen, a colt whose exploits were such as to earn for him the appellation of "The Iron Horse." The fact was that any horse that endured "Pa" Bradley's rigorous training and racing methods was justly entitled to the same sobriquet. Robert Waddell was a son of Aloha, which horse was himself long a Chicago favorite and a capital race horse of high breeding, which made his start in racing at the old West Side track, afterwards called Garfield Park. Judging by the racing of Robert Waddell, Peter Paul and others of his progeny he would have made a great name for himself as a sire had he been located in the bluegrass region of Kentucky instead of being buried in the comparative obscurity of Bradley's farm.

Robert Waddell only raced two years, but what he did in that space of time was a plenty. Departing from the usual Bradley practice, he was not introduced to racing at Benning, but was reserved until the Aqueduct meeting came on. There, on April 20, 1900, he made his first bow to the public when he ran third to Glenwood and Gracious at four and a half furlongs in 37. Before he was sent into winter quarters he had started in thirty-three more races, of which he only won seven and altogether did not seem to present the credentials of a future American Derby winner. Robert ran three times at Aqueduct without winning and then was brought to Chicago. Here he ran in thirteen races before he finally scored a win, but in these defeats was frequently second or third. His first victory was in a five-eighths of a mile dash over a heavy track at Harbison, October 22, in which he defeated Quarterback, Krower and seven others, one of which, Guy H., actually finished first by a nose, but was disqualified for fouling him. Time 1:05 1/2. He won again the next day at a mile, for all ages, ran the distance in 1:44 1/2 and defeated Al Brown, Wall, Norford, Nona B. and Hurry. Al Brown was at 9 to 10, but Robert defeated him easily by three lengths. The track was slow. October 26 he kept up his winning streak by finishing first, at a mile for two-year-olds, in doing which he defeated Tyr, Benckart, Wall and Fancywood in 1:40 1/2 on a fast track. In his next race he was beaten at a mile and a sixteenth in a race for all ages by the three-year-olds, The Unknown and Olaner, in 1:50 1/4, over a muddy track, but ran a good race in finishing third, October 31 he won from Benckart, Al Brown, Fancywood and Hampshire, at five and a half furlongs in 1:11 1/2, the going being quite heavy. November 3, at Lakeside, The Unknown defeated him by a nose in a mile dash in 1:43 1/2. Scarlet Lily finishing third, but two days later he won at three-quarters and defeated Possart, Fancywood and four others in 1:15 1/2. That was his last victory in Chicago that year, but he won two races at Washington later on. The first of these was at five and a half furlongs, November 21, and in this he defeated the 3 to 5 favorite, McAddie, Isa, Spark and Ruff Park in 1:09 1/2. His other success there was achieved December 1, in a dash of three-quarters, in which he defeated Pigeon Post, Moor, Amarita, Rabunta, Gink and Spark. In his last three races there he was unplaced.

When the American Derby nominations were published early in 1901 it was found that Robert Waddell was one of the nominees. At that time future books on the big race were common. Those making them did not think well of his chances and laid 100 to 1 against him. For some reason not apparent in his record the broken gelding developed a remarkable array of admirers on the part of local moderate bettors. There were other horses in the race at 100 to 1 or more, for which no support was forthcoming, but Robert was persistently backed for small amounts day after day, so that when it came about that he won gloriously there was frantic rejoicing, in which the makers of the future books had no part. There were cases of men not given to heavy betting winning really surprising sums. That year Robert began his racing at Benning, March 30, in a sprint of five and a half furlongs, in which he was second to the fast old-timer, Lexington Pirate, in 1:16 1/2. April 1 he won at six and a half furlongs, his only opponent, Kid Cox, breaking down in the race. The next day he won from Moor, Prosser and three more, at three-quarters in 1:16 1/2, and on April 5 defeated Moor and Nitrate, at the same distance in 1:16 1/2. Then, on April 9, he won again, at the same distance in 1:17, from Magic Light, Nitrate and four others. And as he won his Chicago partisans slipped over to the future books and made investments, while the bookmakers began to take a reef in his prices. On April 12 The Rhymer put a stop to his victorious career by defeating him at the same distance in 1:15 1/2, which was fast time for that slow track. That was his last race at the Washington spring meeting and he was taken north to Aqueduct to essay his first stake race in an effort to capture the Carter Handicap. This he failed to do, but raced well enough to finish second to the four-year-old filly, Motley. He had up 99 pounds to her 106 and Pupil, the third horse, also carried 106. Among the horses running unplaced was the American Derby winner of the year before, Sidney Lucas, as well as his Washington conqueror, The Rhymer. The seven-eighths of the race was run in 1:28 over a slow track. This was an auspicious entry into select company and gave some glimpse at the fact that Robert Waddell of 1901 was not exactly the Robert Waddell of 1900. The Carter Handicap, April 15 and four days later, he won the Arverne Stakes at the same distance in 1:28 1/2, defeating Outlander, Sadie S. All Green and In Spot. April 16 King Bramble beat him by a head at three-quarters over a heavy track in 1:16, but two days later, on a fast track at seven-eighths, he won from Janice, Speedmas and four others in 1:28 1/2, giving much weight to every other horse. Then he set sail for Chicago.

His first start of the year here was in the Worth Stakes, at Worth, May 2. In this event he ran second to The Conqueror II., with Louisville third and six more unplaced. Distance one and a sixteenth miles and time 1:48 1/2. May 11 he won at a mile from the one-year-olds, Espionage, Andes and Crosby, in 1:42 1/2, and three days later won at a mile and an eighth in 1:52 1/2 from Ohnet, Ben Chance, Andes and Frangible. Next, in a special race that amounted to a match, at a mile, he took up 112 pounds to 102 on Hardy Durham's Operator and won by a half length in 1:41 1/2. May 18, in the Piper Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, he was given 110 pounds and ran third to the four-year-olds, Caviar, 113, and Louisville, 104, the favorite, Advance Guard, 120, running fourth. The time was fast, 1:46 1/2. May 25 he won a five-eighths sprint in 1:09 1/2 from Money Mass, Boney Boy and Light Ball. These races were all at Worth. His next start was in the Flight Stakes of three-quarters of a mile at Hawthorne, May 30. In this he ran unplaced to Silverdale, Bessie Macken and Money Mass in 1:13, and to make matters worse also ran unplaced in his next three races. All took place at Hawthorne, the last being run June 7. The American Derby was to be run June 22 and in the interim all sorts of rumors were afloat as to what Bradley was doing with Robert Waddell, most of the reports being unfavorable to the horse and his owner's method of preparing him for the great race.

The answer came when it was run. The Parader, Bonibert and Sadie S. had come on from the east to run and The Parader was the favorite at 3 to 1. The starters and weights were Robert Waddell, 119 pounds; Terminus, 122; The Parader, 127; Bonibert, 127; His Eminence, 127; Samazaro, 122; Sadie S., 117; Beau Gallant, 122; Silverdale, 127, and Six Shooter, 115. Robert Waddell was ridden by John Bullman, then in his prime and a first-class jockey, and went to the post at 12 to 1. He was off well and made the early running, but soon being passed by The Parader, was saved in second place under a steady pull. The Parader led at a fast pace until beginning the last eighth, where Bullman relaxed his pull on Robert Waddell and in a jiffy the latter passed The Parader, drawing out clear, won gallantly by a length and a half. In the meantime the Tennessee colt, Terminus came through the homestretch with the speed of an express train and, also passing The Parader, captured the $3,000 falling to the second horse. The Parader finished third. The race was run in 2:33 1/2, the fastest previous Derby time being 2:36. The Hawthorne, Worth and Harlem contingents rent the air with unceasing noises denoting exultation and bets landed on the Bradley horse, while the eastern folks were much cast down over The Parader's defeat. However, they had some consolation when the latter went back to New York and, in winning the Lawrence Realization, defeated the mighty Commando. Not overlooking anything worth picking up, Bradley started his Derby winner in a purse race at three-quarters three days after the big race and won it in 1:14 from Yellow Tail, Gold Or and three more. June 29 he took up 115 pounds and did a great thing when he won the Oakwood Handicap, at a mile and an eighth in 1:52 1/2, with The Conqueror II., 110 pounds, second; Advance Guard, 121, third, and such stars unplaced as Lady Elite, 95; Vesuvius, 117; Mr. Brown, 113; Gonfalon, 114; Eddie Jones, 120, and Martinus, 117. July 4 he added the Sheridan Stakes to his spools and carrying 126 pounds, won from Six Shooter, 115 pounds; Terminus, 125; His Eminence, 127; Brutal, 119, and Jiminez, 122. The track was heavy that day and the mile and a quarter of the race was covered in 2:12 1/2. Given 122 pounds in the Great Western Handicap, at a mile and a half, it proved too much for him and he finished unplaced to Advance Guard, 122; Terminus, 108, and Star Chamber, 109, in 2:35 1/2. July 9 the fast colt, Jiminez, carrying 114 pounds to his 124, defeated him by a length in the Drexel Stakes, at a mile in 1:16 1/2. The Parader led at a fast pace until beginning the last eighth, where Bullman relaxed his pull on Robert Waddell and in a jiffy the latter passed The Parader, drawing out clear, won gallantly by a length and a half. In the meantime the Tennessee colt, Terminus came through the homestretch with the speed of an express train and, also passing The Parader, captured the $3,000 falling to the second horse. July 9 the fast colt, Jiminez, carrying 114 pounds to his 124, defeated him by a length in the Drexel Stakes, at a mile in 1:16 1/2. The Parader led at a fast pace until beginning the last eighth, where Bullman relaxed his pull on Robert Waddell and in a jiffy the latter passed The Parader, drawing out clear, won gallantly by a length and a half. In the meantime the Tennessee colt, Terminus came through the homestretch with the speed of an express train and, also passing The Parader, captured the $3,000 falling to the second horse. The Parader finished third. The race was run in 2:33 1/2, the fastest previous Derby time being 2:36. The Hawthorne, Worth and Harlem contingents rent the air with unceasing noises denoting exultation and bets landed on the Bradley horse, while the eastern folks were much cast down over The Parader's defeat. However, they had some consolation when the latter went back to New York and, in winning the Lawrence Realization, defeated the mighty Commando. Not overlooking anything worth picking up, Bradley started his Derby winner in a purse race at three-quarters three days after the big race and won it in 1:14 from Yellow Tail, Gold Or and three more. June 29 he took up 115 pounds and did a great thing when he won the Oakwood Handicap, at a mile and an eighth in 1:52 1/2, with The Conqueror II., 110 pounds, second; Advance Guard, 121, third, and such stars unplaced as Lady Elite, 95; Vesuvius, 117; Mr. Brown, 113; Gonfalon, 114; Eddie Jones, 120, and Martinus, 117. July 4 he added the Sheridan Stakes to his spools and carrying 126 pounds, won from Six Shooter, 115 pounds; Terminus, 125; His Eminence, 127; Brutal, 119, and Jiminez, 122. The track was heavy that day and the mile and a quarter of the race was covered in 2:12 1/2. Given 122 pounds in the Great Western Handicap, at a mile and a half, it proved too much for him and he finished unplaced to Advance Guard, 122; Terminus, 108, and Star Chamber, 109, in 2:35 1/2. CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, APRIL 16, 1914.

WINS RACES, BUT LOSES GOOD FOAL.

New York, April 15.—August Belmont was in-founded by cable yesterday of the victory of two of his horses in France. Bavard III., a four-year-old son of Ethelbert and Bivona, won the Prix de Barbeville of $1,200, and Dramatiste, a three-year-old by Rock Sand—Drama, was the winner of the Prix de Villorion of $1,500. Both of these winners were bred by Mr. Belmont at his French establishment and the victories were especially gratifying on account of the severity of each test, both races being for stayers. Bivona is only eleven years old and was sent to France by Mr. Belmont in 1908. She is a daughter of Hastings and Belinda, and therefore bred on one of the stoutest of American lines.
Drama is a Hanover mare out of Peg Woffington and, like the other matron, purely American in her pedigree. This was not the only news that was received from France by Mr. Belmont. He also received a cable from his stud manager at the Haras de Villers, his French breeding establishment, that a brother to Tracery had died. This colt was foaled by Topiary March 27 and was particularly large, but lacking in strength. The mare shortly before foaling time was in rather bad condition, but the colt lived until April 2. The mare in the meantime recovered and it has been decided this season to send her to Flint Rock, a son of Rock Sand and Flizig.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Castleton, formerly the property of James R.
Keene, and now belonging to Kennedy Jones, won the $5,000 Jubilee Hurdle Race at Manchester, England, last Tuesday, defeating twelve opponents.

At Kempton Park last Monday, P. Nicks's four-year-old chestnut colt China Cock, by Santol—High Feather, 112 pounds, won the $5,000 Queen's Prize at a mile and a half, with G. D. Smith's five-year-old bay horse Bonfire, by Robert le Diable—Furze Bush, 111 pounds, second, and Lord Carnarvon's five-year-old bay horse Rival, by Robert le Diable —Martineau, 123 pounds third. China Cock had previously won the Liverpool Spring Cup and is evidently a good colt this year.

HEADING FOR HAVRE DE GRACE.

Horses Leave Winter Quarters at Long Island Tracks to Race in Maryland.

New York, April 15.—Although the trainers at the Long Island tracks have been seriously handicapped by reason of the late spring, some horses have already been shipped out here to Havre de Grace and others will go before the end of the week. The horses that have been fitted at Gravesend, Sheephead Bay and Belmont Park will be at a disadvantage so far as seasoning is concerned.
One important shipment that left Sheephead Bay today is that of E. Cooney. His most notable horse, so far as present condition is concerned, seems to be the three-year-old Punch Bowl. This fellow was not altogether a success last season, though trainer E. W. Heffner brought him to the races in the best of condition. He had created a sensation by his phenomenal speed before he was raced, but with colors up he met with many misfortunes and failed utterly to race up to his promise.
Punch Bowl is in the Harford Handicap, the opening day feature at Havre de Grace next Saturday, under 104 pounds, and Heffner has been pointing him for that race. His recent move indicated that he is possessed of considerable speed. He was worked six furlongs in 1:19. He went the first quarter in 25.4, three furlongs in 37.2, the half in 50.2, and five furlongs in 1:03.2. The Harford Handicap is a five and a half furlong affair. Old Guy Fisher is still in the Cooney establishment, and he is being fitted for another season, but up to this time he has not attracted much attention in his gallops. Several times last season he came out of his races decidedly lame. This spring he has been pulling up lame in some of his trials.

Another three-year-old that is making ready for the Harford Handicap is Superintendant. He was the stable of F. Mannix. Trainer C. Merritt has him about ready. Superintendant went into winter quarters with a good record and all of his races suggested that he would go on to greater things when he was raced over the distances required of the three-year-olds. He was beaten by O'Brien and Beauty breezed along yesterday for a half in 55 and finished out five furlongs in 1:07. He was accompanied in his work by Applauder. These two left for Havre de Grace in the same shipment with the Cooney horses.

A. L. Aske has changed his plans for the horses carried out last season and his training operations would indicate that he will not start anything at Havre de Grace. Ten Point, which was rushed along in the early spring of last year has only been breezed slowly this spring. Goldy, another in the stable, has been doing well in training. Ten Point was a growthy colt as a two-year-old.
He was not through growing last season, and now that he has reached four he is bigger than ever.
Still another in the Aske barn is Robert L., a three-year-old son of Jack Point and Raiment. He has been doing well in training, and the Askes have attracted attention at the Bay in his gallops.
Robert L. was not started last year, but there were frequent reports that Aske had a two-year-old that could hold Ten Point in his work.
Robert L. was the particular two-year-old of which these things were said.

George Odom, who will race a likely lot of two-year-olds for the Brookside Stable this year, has had his charges going along lately in a manner to suggest good races at Havre de Grace. He has made several entries and his two-year-olds have shown quarters close to 24 seconds. Those that are named for the Harford Handicap are: Grace stake, a chestnut son of Celt and Belle Fleur; Andrew M., a chestnut son of Celt and Sane; Co-quette, a chestnut daughter of Celt and Adriana; Al Reeves, a bay son of Peep O'Day and Lovelight; Brian Borm, a chestnut son of Celt and Ellerslie; and Astrim, a chestnut daughter of Celt and Diamantina.

The Quincy Stable is another that will be on hand at Havre de Grace from Sheephead Bay.
Steve Lawler has these horses in his care, and Jackie Burlingame has been engaged to drive them. Last year the Quincy Stable made several yearling purchases of moment, and several of them are training well. They have been well engaged at Havre de Grace, and it is the intention to make the season's start at that meeting. The older horses that are engaged at the meeting of the Harford Handicap are Lobengrin, a four-year-old, and the three-year-olds Master Joe and Wooden Shoes. The two-year-olds that are engaged at the same meeting from this stable are: Unity, a bay son of Galveston and Princess Norotti; Uncle Fitz, a chestnut son of Uncle and Frederica; Lady Te-rass, a bay daughter of Star Sharpe; and Miss Frances, a chestnut daughter of Peep O'Day and White Owl. Of these youngsters one that has attracted particular attention is Uncle Fitz, a half-brother to Adams Express. Another that has been going along well is Unity, a brother of Prince Gal, who was successfully for George Odom a few seasons back.

James Fitzsimmons shipped a string of nine from Gravesend to Havre de Grace today. His charges have been going along in a smart way for a considerable time and Joe McCahey, the stable jockey, has been keeping them in condition galloping the horses. Fitzsimmons has decided to leave Sandhill in New York when he ships away, and that good son of Rock Sand will probably not be started until the meeting of the Westchester Racing Association opens at Belmont Park. The Fitzsimmons lot will be represented in the running of the Harford Handicap by Scallywag, which races in the colors of Henry J. Morris.

J. L. McGinnis will not start anything at Havre de Grace. Sam Jackson, his good handiecap horse, is taking exercise, but is not being hurried and will probably not be seen under colors until Belmont Park is reached.

Andrew Miller's Roamer is a Harford Handicap candidate that has been fitted at Gravesend by A.
J. Goldsborough. This good three-year-old has grown and improved greatly in looks through the cold months, and with the other horses in the string he was breezed along for a half in 55 easily yesterday morning.

John G. Cavanaugh will again have the Havre de Grace betting ring in charge for the coming meeting, and he has already received a number of applications from layers who propose doing business at the Maryland course. Mr. Cavanaugh is acting on these applications, at his office, 30 East Forty-second street, and present indications are that there will be no dearth of layers.

Capt. E. B. Bassett, of Belmont, Pa., will be represented at the Harford Handicap by fourteen horses, seven of which are two-year-olds. J.
Simon Healy has taken the lot over from Chester-brook Farm and they are quartered in the stable that has been reserved for Captain Bassett ever since the opening of the track. Captain Healy has a spell of sleep just what he wanted to be doing the most with his horses, but they appear to be in excellent condition.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY

Count Shigenobu Okuma, former Japanese foreign minister, has completed his new cabinet.

Sir William Whyte, one of the pioneers of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, died at Coronado Beach, Cal.

Congress has perfected the passage of a bill to raise the Argentine legation of the United States to an embassy.

Hobart C. Chatfield-Taylor of Chicago has been knighthood by the Italian king for his "Life of Gol-doni," noted Italian dramatist.

The National Democratic Club of New York has reinstated Charles P. Murphy, whose expulsion not long ago aroused quite a furore.

Charles H. Graves, United States minister to Sweden, has resigned on account of ill health, and his resignation has been accepted by President Wilson.

It is not improbable that the lower house of Congress will reach a vote on the Hobson prohibitory amendment resolution before the present session ends.

It is said that the wedding of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Wilson will be witnessed by not more than fifty guests and will be notable for its exclusiveness rather than display.

General Villa's army has defeated the combined Federal forces forty miles east of Torreon in a battle that has been raging for nine days. It is declared to have been the hardest fought conflict of the present revolution.

London, Eng., April 15.—The appointment of Sir Lionel Carden as British Minister to Brazil was announced officially today. It is understood Sir Lionel will go direct to Rio de Janeiro from Mexico City, to which place he is on his way.

Robert E. Lee, of North Carolina, a grandson of General Robert E. Lee, was dismissed from the United States Military Academy at West Point because of deficiency in mathematics. Lee played shortstop on the cadet nine.

The labor party in England has instructed its representatives in Parliament to stand by its policies and Premier Asquith may thereby lose the support of that part of the coalition which placed him in power. If so, the ministry stands in a precarious position.

The Students' Honor Commission at the University of Chicago, a court in which all students charged with dishonesty connected with examinations are tried by fellow students, reported on thirteen cases. The most severe penalty imposed was six months' college work in the case of a student found guilty of cheating in the medical department.

A revised administration trust bill, which tones down some of the provisions of existing law to which organized labor objects, has been introduced in Congress with the approval of President Wilson.
It is announced. Unions are not to be exempted from prosecution for illegal acts, but the powers of the courts in dealing with such cases are to be curbed.

Vera Cruz, April 15.—General Maass, commander of the port, today refused to release three American women brought here under arrest from Mexico City on the charge of being spies. United States Consul Canada requested that they be freed, but the Mexican general declined to grant the request, saying that action would be taken only on orders from the Minister of War.

New York, April 15.—Directors of the Western Union Telegraph company today elected Newcomb Carlton president of the company in place of Theodore N. Vail. Mr. Vail remains president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, from which the Western Union was recently divorced.
Mr. Carlton was for many years vice-president of the Western Union.

Lima, Peru, April 15.—Official announcement has been made of a mutiny which occurred in the Iquitos regiment, some time ago, owing to the failure of the government to pay the men. The mutineers were suppressed by the officers of the regiment and the prefect of the province, President Benavides has ordered that the mutineers be punished with the utmost severity.

Pekin, China, April 15.—The Japanese government today expressed its regret to the Chinese government for the Changti incident, which occurred in September, 1913, when several Chinese soldiers were killed by Japanese troops who were occupying a section of the Mukden railway. Japan also agreed to pay $26,000, Mexican, in compensation to the families of the soldiers killed.

Leeds, Eng., April 15.—A settlement of the Yorkshire coal miners' strike was reached today when the men voted to resume work. The strikers, numbering 170,000, left work on April 2, demanding the introduction of a minimum wage scale. A conciliation board was appointed to discuss the points at issue and succeeded in obtaining the men's consent to the taking of a ballot.

New York, April 15.—Wednesday, May 6, was tentatively fixed for the beginning of the second trial of Charles Becker, former police lieutenant sentenced to die for instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, but saved by a Court of Appeals decision. Becker appeared in court, brought over from the Tombs, while District Attorney Whitman asked that the new trial be called as soon as possible. It was announced that M. T. Manton had succeeded Joseph A. Shay as chief counsel for Becker.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, April 15.—The government of the State of Amazonas has arranged to send a steamer to meet Colonel Roosevelt and his companions at the mouth of the Ariparana River, down which the ex-President is proceeding on his way to Manaos. All the members of the second section of the Roosevelt expedition have arrived at Manaos in good health. They will continue on to Rio Janeiro. Among other things the expedition discovered among the volcanic rocks at the source of the Paraguay River were the bones of gigantic animals.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Proposed increases of two per cent. in class and commodity freight rates between points on the middle west and the Atlantic seaboard have been suspended by the in-state commerce commission pending investigation until August 13. Other increases in so-called proportional rates between the east and west also were suspended for the same period. A proposal by the Pennsylvania railroad to withdraw a charge of 5 cents a ton for handling lake cargo from vessels to cars at Cleveland, Ashtabula, Sandusky and Erie also was suspended for the same time.

"Jack" Johnson, negro pugilist, is to return to Chicago and face trial again on some of the counts of the indictments charging violation of the Mann act, on which he was convicted in June, 1913, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Paris.
The decision of Johnson to return to the United States was reached after he had received word of the action yesterday of the United States Court of Appeals in reversing the lower court on certain counts and remanding these for new trial. The case, involving other counts of the indictment, was remanded to the lower court for resentence.

New York, April 15.—The condition of Vincent Astor, who became suddenly ill Monday at Hope-land house, St. James, has improved. His wife, Miss Helen Dismore Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, was reported improved early today. Until early yesterday morning Mr. Astor's condition was considered dangerous by the four physicians in attendance.

Whether plans for the wedding of Mr. Astor and Miss Huntington on April 30 will have to be changed depended, it was announced at the Huntington home today, upon the rapidity of the patient's recovery.

William S. Shallenberger, member of the forty-fifth, forty-sixth and forty-seventh congress from Pennsylvania and for ten years second assistant postmaster-general, was found dead in bed at his Washington home yesterday. He was born at Mount Pleasant, Pa., was a civil war veteran and was 75 years old.

St. Louis, Mo., April 15.—The Mississippi river commission, in session here, agreed to recommend that congress appropriate $12,000,000 for the improvement of the river next year. The meeting was held on board the steamer Mississippi. At its conclusion the commission departed for New Orleans on its semi-annual tour of inspection. Plans were discussed for the improvement of banks and levees between St. Louis and New Orleans, and also between St. Louis and Rock Island, Ill., which stretch of the river recently was added to the jurisdiction of the commission.

The movement of United States warships against Mexico will include, besides the demonstration at Tampico, on the east coast, the assembling of the Pacific fleet at Acapulco, a west coast port that is connected with Mexico City by rail. It is said that the action decided upon by President Wilson and his advisers to compel Mexican respect for the American flag includes the blocking of various Mexican ports, the seizure of custom houses and the occupation of Tampico by the American forces, unless Huerta complies with the demand that the American flag be hoisted in the public square of the town and honored with a salute of twenty-one guns. Americans still remaining in Mexico are being urged to quit the country with all possible dispatch. Huerta, according to dispatches from the Mexican capital, is disposed to view with un-concern the preparations of the American government to back up its demand for reparation for the recent insult at Tampico. He is inclined to believe that the action of the Washington government will tend to harmonize the warring factions in Mexico and unite them for the defense of the country against foreign invasion. It is known that he regards the analogy he has already made on account of the Tampico episode as ample. The naval force that will be available for the Mexican movement under orders that have been issued embraces 15,000 men. The fleet will be the largest assembled by this government since the Spanish-American war.
The Mexican foreign minister, Senator Portillo y Rojas, is said to have transmitted to the American charge d'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, a note dealing with the arrest of the assistant paymaster and a detachment of bluejackets from the United States garrisoned at Tampico and the demand that Admiral Mayo that the American flag be saluted.
In effect the note says that the Mexican government cannot see wherein, under international law, the Federals have inflicted any insult on the American nation; that its ordering the army publicly to salute the American flag under any circumstances would be an admission that the United States is exercising undue influence over Mexico's free action, and that the president is disposed to uphold the honor and sovereignty of Mexico at any cost.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Following is an official statement issued today as representing the views of President Wilson and the administration on Mexico:

"In discussion in official circles in Washington of the present Mexican situation the following points have been very much dwelt upon:

"It has been pointed out that, in considering the present somewhat delicate situation in Mexico, the unpleasant incident at Tampico cannot be thought of alone. For some time past the defects of government of Mexico has seemed to think mere apologies sufficient when the rights of American citizens or the dignity of the government of the United States were involved and has apparently made no attempt at either reparation or the effective correction of the serious derelictions of its civil and military officers.

"Immediately after the incident at Tampico an orderly from one of the ships of the United States, in the harbor of Vera Cruz, who had been sent ashore to the postoffice for the ship's mail, and who was in uniform and who had the official mail bag on his back, was arrested and put into jail by the local authorities. He was subsequently released and a nominal punishment was inflicted upon the officer who arrested him, but it was significant that an orderly from the fleet of the United States was picked out from the many persons constantly going ashore on various errands, from the various ships in the harbor, representing several nations.

"Most serious of all, the officials in charge of the telegraph office at Mexico City presumed to withhold an official dispatch of the government of the United States to its embassy at Mexico City, until it should have been sent to the censor and his permission received to deliver it and gave the dispatch into the hands of the charge d'affaires of the United States only upon his personal and emphatic demand, he, having in the meantime learned through other channels that a dispatch had been sent him which he had not received.

"It cannot be denied that any one who has watched the course of events in Mexico as significant that outward incidents such as these have not occurred in any case where representatives of other governments were concerned, but only in dealings with representatives of the United States, and that there has been no occasion for such a course of action attention to such matters or to ask for apologies.
